Minera Alamos Announces Granting of Stock Options

Toronto, Ontario – May 29, 2026 – Minera Alamos Inc. (“Minera Alamos” or the “Company”) (TSXV: MAI; OTCQX: MAIFF) announces that on May 28, 2026 the Company granted a total of 800,000 incentive stock options (“Options”) to officers and directors in accordance with the Company’s Omnibus Incentive Plan. Each Option is exercisable to acquire one common share of the Company at a price of C$6.93 per share. The Options will expire three years from the date of grant and will vest and become exercisable over the next two years.

About Minera Alamos

Minera Alamos is a growing North American gold production and development company with projects in Nevada, Arizona, and Mexico. The Company owns the Pan Operating Complex in White Pine County, Nevada, comprised of the producing Pan mine and the adjacent permitted Gold Rock project, as well as the nearby past-producing Illipah project. The Company also owns the Copperstone project in La Paz County, Arizona, a permitted, advanced underground gold project. The Company maintains a portfolio of high-quality Mexican assets, including the Cerro de Oro project, an open pit heap leach gold development project in northern Zacatecas.

The Company’s strategy is to become a leading, U.S.-focused intermediate gold producer by growing production at its Pan Operating Complex and developing its pipeline of high-quality, low-capital projects while expanding gold resources across its portfolio.

The Company announced a proposed name change to Mining Americas Inc., subject to the approval of its shareholders at the Company’s Annual General Meeting on June 25, 2026 and the TSX Venture Exchange. Refer to the Company’s news release dated May 11, 2026 for more details.
